Aaron Monick is a highly-seasoned and dedicated attorney who has been practicing law since 2004. He takes pride in providing exceptional legal services to his clients, treating each case like it's his own. What Aaron enjoys most about being a lawyer is the opportunity to help injured people and make a meaningful difference in their lives when they need support the most.

Aaron earned his undergraduate degree from Michigan State University, before heading to the West Coast to attend Law School at the University of California, Berkeley, where he earned his Juris Doctor. He is licensed to practice in Georgia, California, and Tennessee, and is a member of The Million Dollar Advocates Forum, a group of top trial attorneys who've served as principal counsel in high value cases of one million dollars or more.

Additionally, Aaron is trilingual and speaks English, Spanish and French. When he is not at work, Aaron enjoys family time with his wife, their two kids, Dashiell and Ezra, and their French bulldog, Muggsy.
