Growing up, David Weinberg was inspired to become a lawyer by Harper Lee's Atticus Finch in "To Kill a Mockingbird" and was later influenced by the legal dramas of the 1980's and 1990's. Now a highly seasoned, real life attorney, David knows the value of delivering excellent client service and results. His clients appreciate the way he manages communication by being approachable, responsive, and consistently keeping them informed about the details of their case.

David's favorite part about Montlick & Associates is working with a highly skilled team that stays on the leading edge of developments in the law, and always thinks of how best to serve the clients' needs.

In law school, David was a member of the Moot Court Executive Board and served as a Federal Judicial Extern to The Honorable Terry J. Hatter, Jr., in The United States District Court for the Central District of California.

David has been committed to helping injured people get the compensation they deserve since 2007. This Atlanta native is also passionate about playing guitar, backpacking, and being a loving husband and father to his wife and children.
