Sarah Neeland has been described by colleagues as level-headed, determined and kind. She's a hardworking personal injury attorney with a passion for problem-solving and helping clients get through tough situations. As a forward-thinker with a focused eye on outcomes, Sarah's daily inspiration is a quote from Robert Frost: "The best way out is always through."

After earning her undergraduate degrees from the University of Georgia, Sarah received her Juris Doctorate from Tulane University School of Law, where she served on the Moot Court Board and worked in the Juvenile Law Clinic. She spent her summers prior to graduating law school interning for the ACLU of Georgia, the Barton Child Law and Policy Center at Emory University School of Law and at the Mecklenburg County District Attorney's Office. She joined Montlick & Associates in January of 2015.

Sarah is an active participant of the Young Advisor Committee for the Atlanta Children's Shelter. She currently lives in Brookhaven with her husband and two dogs, Stan and Teddy.
